Life's greatest projects are born from dreams about the sheer magnitude of possibility. Our living spaces are like artist canvasses, waiting for us to be inspired. The right interior and landscape designer can help us realize our dreams, and their expertise and artistic visions will blend with your lifestyle needs to create beautiful, functional rooms, yards and gardens. Our hand-picked pros can work with your needs and budget, whether you're looking for a little change or a giant re-do. And if you simply need some pipes fixed, there's help for that, too.

True home style is the reflection of those who live, breathe, work and play within the living space. To the design experts at Homework Interiors, individuality lies in the details. They know the secret to accessory styling that can transform a room from beautiful to unforgettable. We're so glad they're willing to share their know-how, and their direct line to dozens of furnishing brands we didn't even know existed but now we can't live without. Each designer works in a variety of styles and collaborates with clients to accurately reflect interests and concerns throughout their home décor. Studio hours by appointment.

Since rugs and flooring are an integral part of home fashion, it makes sense to shop with a company that shares this perspective. Here we find quality in every price range, even custom orders that don't require months of waiting. Plus, Hagopian staff knows what it takes to clean and service their products. We support local family businesses, with bonus points to those that have been around for more than 70 years. Rugs that look so-so in the showroom might really blossom at home, so the free in-home trial takes all the guesswork out of dressing up the home. Hours vary by location, so visit the website.
